Primary research areas of the Institute:

- Public administration system based on high technologies;
- Economic regulation and planning;
- Economic development strategy, development of knowledge-intensive industries;
- Development of financial and fiscal regulation of economic processes;
- Social processes;
- Environmental economics and environmental safety;
- Legal regulation in economic management;
- International economic relations.

The Institute’s talent pool is represented by 67 research associates, including 8 doctors and 23 candidates of sciences. The Institute’s personnel are highly-skilled professionals possessing considerable experience in the sphere of preparing national programs of development for different economy sectors, enterprise management, economic and mathematical modeling, and constructing information and analytical systems.

The Institute offers the post-graduate and doctoral programs in 08.00.10 Economics and national economy management (by sectors and spheres of activity) and 08.00.10 Finance, money circulation and credit.

The Institute publishes the scientific journal “Vestnik of Institute of Economic Research” (ISSN 2519-2019) which offers scientists, researchers, government officials and practitioners the opportunity to present the results of their scientific researches and practical experience in solving urgent economics and law problems of the fundamental and applied nature. The publication was included in the following international scientometric databases: the Scientific Electronic Library e library.ru (Russian Science Citation Index – RSCI) – the licensing contract № 530–10/2016 dd. October 05, 2016; Academic Resource Index – ResearchBib (Japan) – the letter № 213438 from ResearchBib Team dd. October 5, 2016; Google Scholar – the letter № NMujFcAAAAAJ from Google Scholar Team dd. January 16, 2017. The journal has also been included in the Russian scientific e-library CyberLeninka - the contract №3323-01 dd. January 16, 2017.